C.P. Smith Elementary School Vision Statement

C.P. Smith Elementary School is a Grades K-5 school of approximately 270 students located on Ethan Allen Parkway in Burlington's New North End. Students, faculty and staff members, and families work together to create a learning community that is safe, respectful and responsible for all. A growing focus on nature-based and wellness education engages students in learning through creative projects, outdoor experiences, and connections to the community, both locally and globally. This allows students to meet high academic standards while learning about and caring for themselves, each other, and our environment.
